Patrick Plucinsky (Clyde Barrow) is ecstatic to be playing the role of Clyde in Celebration Theatre Company's "Bonnie and Clyde". While studying his BFA in Musical Theatre from Ohio Northern University, Clyde became a dream role that he can't believe he's getting to bring to life. When he's not driving the getaway car to flee another robbery, Patrick is almost always found dancing up and down the streets of Magic Kingdom in the "Festival of Fantasy" Parade and the "Move it, Shake it, Mousekedance it!" Patrick would love to thank the person who invented coffee for carrying him throughout this rehearsal process. A huge thank you to his literal partner in crime, Cara, for making this crime spree so unforgettable (as putting up with all the weird thing he says behind the scenes). And the biggest thank you to anybody who has ever supported him to keep pushing for his dreams. Buckle up and enjoy the ride of Bonnie and Clyde!
